This historic hotel is one of Europe's oldest city hotels and has 101 rooms and suites. These are all decorated in the neo-classicist or art deco style and are furnished with antique furniture and art. Fine dining highlights include the Restaurant Cheval Blanc (3 stars in the Michelin Guide – 19 GaultMillau points), the Brasserie, the Chez Donati Italian restaurant, the Bar and the Salon du Cigare – the Rhine terraces in summer are both legendary and unique. The seven conference rooms and the wonderful Salle Belle Epoque are ideal for festive banquets and successful conferences – all these rooms enjoy ample natural lighting and come with state-of-the-art infrastructure.
